

User Guide - Getting Started

Registration

Sippcentre is exclusively available through financial advisers and brings together the expertise of the UK's leading investment institutions with the flexibility of one of the most cost effective and multi-award winning SIPPs in the market. Before you can benefit from our many online facilities, you must register with us.

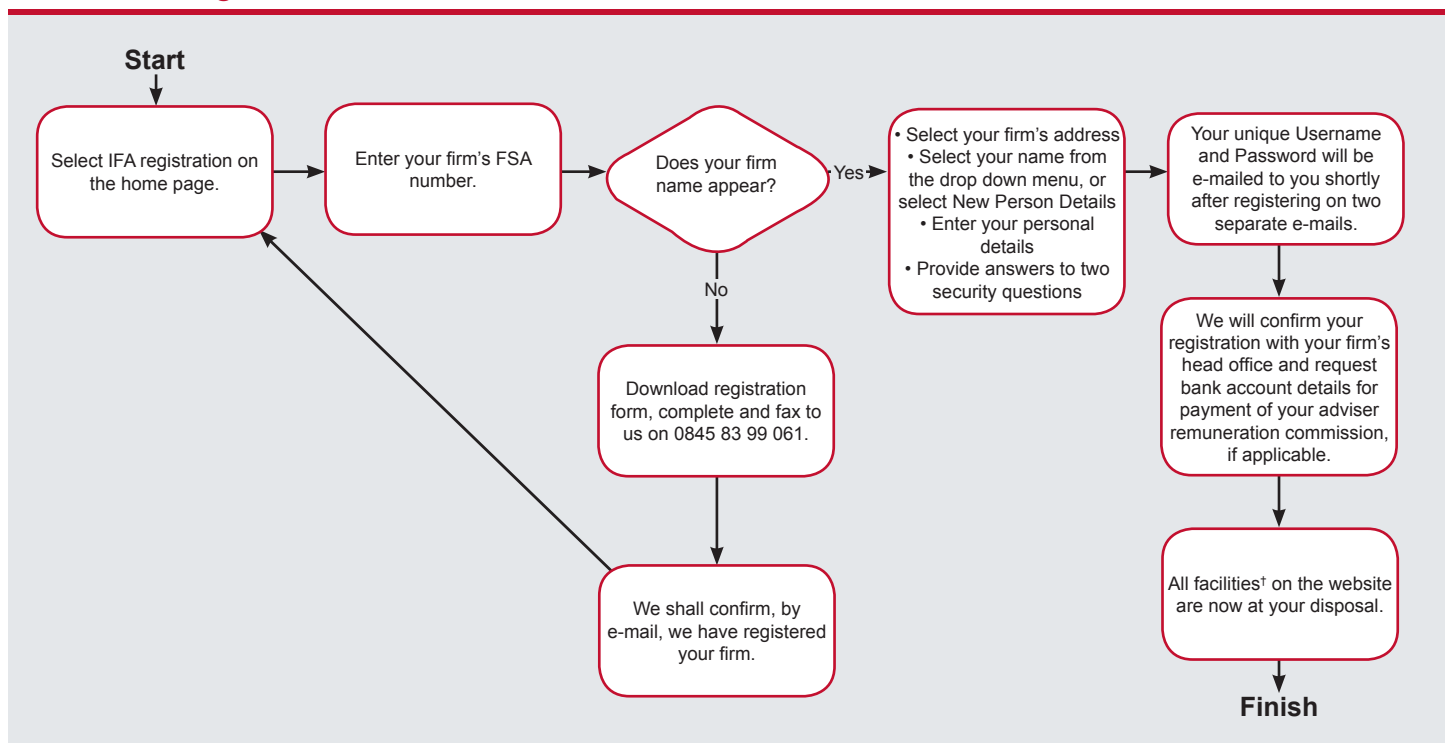

Once registered with us you have the opportunity, at no cost, of co-branding our website, literature and illustrations with your firm's logo. This helps reinforce your central role in the process. All you need to do is e-mail your firm's logo to use and we will do the rest.

How do I Register?

Registration is quick and easy and you get immediate access to our:

- Technical centre
- SippTalk.tv
- Comprehensive suite of illustration tools
- Co-branding facilities
- Online application tool
- Literature and user guides

Access Levels

There are three security access levels which allow full access to our website (including access to the online dealing area for the Advisory option):-

Level 1 (Default) – Allows the Adviser to view all clients registered with the individual Adviser.

Level 2 – Allows the Adviser to view all clients registered with all advisers in an office.

Level 3 – Allows the Adviser to view all clients registered with all advisers in a network of offices.
